

GOING SOLO

“Solo dancing is a team activity”

A thought provoking exhibition to stimulate your mind and your body, ‘Going Solo’ was created to accompany a week long celebration of solo dancing at the Blackie, including workshops, performances, seminars and screenings.

Using thoughts, facts and photographs ‘Going Solo’ explores aspects of solo dance, across continents and cultures, from the late C19th to the present day. 41 works mounted on decorative wood board, the largest is 59cm x 84cm
