

The Black-E Goes To India

(Current Theme)

We have an exciting programme of events for 2010 that include something for every age from Hip hop writing to Bhangra dancing

We run free workshops for children every Saturday morning from 11am until 2pm. (bringing a packed lunch is recommended)

We offer dance drama and cultural arts on a weekly basis.

Sessions are open to any age however children under 6 should be supervised by parents .

Our Current theme is India therefore we will be exploring Indian culture through music, dance, drama and art and crafts.

Weekly Dance classes for young people every Thursday evening from 6pm - 8.30.

We also run free drop in / chill out sessions for young people every Thursday evening from 5.30pm -8.30pm. They can play snooker, table tennis, watch movies and play on the wii console.
