

Museum

The Archive of The Black-E's work

If you would influence the future, study the past (after Confucius) The Museum offers a display of 40-plus years of cultural history. Who did what - why - when - and to what effect. More than an absorbing archive : also a do-it-yourself kit to contribute to future cultural initiatives.

We expect to have this part of the website - that is the archive of past events - slowly brought into operation over the next 18 months to two years. The museum will cover events created by the Black-E itself and the working of visiting artists from Meredith Monk to The Persuasions. So if your interested bookmark this site and keep on visiting.
